Comedy Cues

Oh No! Not That Bad!

A shipwrecked sailor who had survived three years on a desert island was overjoyed when a ship spotted his signal and sent a small boat ashore.

An officer stepped from the boat, handed the sailor a batch of recent newspapers and said:

"The captain suggests that you read what's going on in the world and then let us know if you still want to be rescued."

Should Hang His Head

They laid the unconscious man out on the station house floor, and the doctor examined him, while the cop who brought him in stood by. The doctor finished and rose. "That man's been drugged."

The cop hung his head. "It's my fault, sir. I drug him six blocks."—Ex.

Just Three Flavors

"What flavors of ice cream do you have?"

The pretty waitress answered in a hoarse whisper, "Vanilla, strawberry, and chocolate."

Trying to be sympathetic he said, "You got laryngitis?"

"No," she replied, with an effort, "just vanilla, strawberry, and chocolate."—Ex.

Self-Detection

Walking toward his car parked half a block away, a motorist saw it suddenly pull out from the curb and go speeding up the street with two men in it. The owner yanked a notebook from his pocket, made a notation, hailed a passing motorcycle cop and reported excitedly: "Somebody just stole my car! But," he added proudly, "I got his license number."
